

2018 Fundraising Committee Annual Report

The Fundraising Committee was formed to identify goals and objectives for raising funds to meet the long-range plans of the club. As the Club moves away from the Zing, this was a transition year for the committee.

Committee Members: Jody Alston, Susan Ballard, Sheridan Burns, Laura Curtiss, Kayla Driscoll, Pam Duane, Gail Galston, JoAnn Gruber-Hagen, Tammy Hagen, Marge Hamann, Pat Harrington, Jane Hartman, Sandy Peterson,

Committee Highlights

- Club members voted to discontinue the Zonta Zing.
- Solicited new fundraising ideas from Club members
- Mystery Dinner – Explored the possibility of hosting a mystery dinner fundraiser. The event is scheduled for Saturday, November 10, 2018.
- Luna Fest – Committee members are looking into having a Luna Fest film festival. The events are sponsored by Luna and feature short films made by women. The committee is tentatively looking at March, 2019 for this event.
- Wine Tasting – Club members would be able to sample various wines.

Cinco de Mayo Dinner

This dinner event was held on Saturday, May 5th at the home of Alison and Kent Pena. Twelve attendees were treated to an authentic seven course Mexican meal and had the opportunity to do a little cooking. The cost of the event was $75 and guests were asked to pay for drinks and to tip the dishwasher. The event raised approximately $1,000 and each guest went home with all the recipes.

Goals for 2019

- Continue to develop new fundraising opportunities.
- Expand the dinner event to include more attendees
- Continue planning Luna Fest, wine tasting and the possibility of another Mystery Dinner.
